BHC Group Welcomes Benefits and Health Care Professional Janet Lucas Taylor as New Executive Director

MILWAUKEE – September 17, 2025 – The Business Health Care Group (BHC Group) is pleased to announce Janet Lucas Taylor as its new executive director, effective September 22, 2025.

Lucas Taylor brings a distinguished background in leading health and benefits programs for Fortune 500 and 1000 companies. Her prior involvement with BHC Group has been multifaceted, including service as a member of the Executive Steering Committee while representing Northwestern Mutual, as well as providing consulting expertise to the organization during her tenure as a senior consultant in health, group benefits, and health management at Towers Watson.

Most recently, Lucas Taylor served as vice president, benefits at Mr. Cooper Group, Inc., a Fortune 1000 national home loan servicer with 7,900 employees. She brings extensive expertise in benefits strategy and administration, health care, and human resources management. In addition to her corporate leadership experience, Lucas Taylor currently serves on the Board of Directors of The Leapfrog Group – a nationally recognized nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing patient safety, health care quality, and transparency in the U.S. health care system.

“We are very pleased that our colleague Janet has agreed to help us drive our continuing efforts to lead change and create value in our health care market as our new executive director,” said the BHCG Executive Steering Committee in a statement. “Janet played a key role in BHCG’s development and success during her time as a member of our Executive Steering Committee and we look forward to her leadership in this new capacity.

“Janet’s experience and success in the national marketplace as a consultant and executive leader, as well as her impactful work with BHCG, will be of great benefit to our organization in her new executive director role. Her deep knowledge, extensive network, and incredible passion for improving health care value for both employers and employees have consistently driven meaningful results. Janet’s participation in BHCG strategic initiatives, both as a member employer representative and as a consultant to our organization, has been invaluable and made a real and quantifiable difference in our health care market. We welcome her in her new role with great support and enthusiasm.”

Added Lucas Taylor, “It has been hugely rewarding on a personal level to see BHCG’s efforts make a real difference in health care and the health and economic welfare of the community over the many years I’ve been involved. I’m excited to support the organization’s continued leadership in driving meaningful health care change in my new role as executive director.

“I look forward to expanding and deepening BHCG’s strong partnerships with the employer and provider communities as we work together to further define and hone the BHCG’s mission. My focus will be on enhancing the value we deliver to our member employers while supporting the organization’s ongoing growth as a dynamic membership-based entity. I’m also eager to collaborate more closely with our strategic partners, whose contributions have been instrumental to BHCG’s success.”
